

High Plains Society for Applied Anthropology

2022 Fall Retreat

“(re)Placing Anthropology: Reflecting on the Anthropologist in the Professional Realm”

Zoom Meeting: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87212342936>

FRIDAY OCTOBER 7ND (MDT TIME ZONE)

Please register online at <https://hpsfaa.org/Events>

6:45-6:55pm

Welcome and Greeting

7:00—8:00pm

Getting Anthropology Out of Crisis: A View from Anthropology’s Career Readiness Commission
Elizabeth Briody

SATURDAY OCTOBER 8TH (MDT TIME ZONE)

10:00-10:10am

President’s Greeting and Opening Remarks
Lucor Jordan

10:15—11:00am

*“Poetry Reading and Discussion: Poetry of Applied Anthropology:
What We Do, What We Call It,
What People We Work with Call What We Do.”*
Howard F. Stein, Poet Laureate, HPSfAA

11:15—12:00pm

Reflections on Applying Anthropology Professionally
Panel Discussion (TBA)

12:00—1:00pm

Lunch

Reducing Bias in the Student Evaluation of Teachers Survey for an Academic Department at a Public University: The Anthropological Difference
1:15—2:00pm

Mikel Hogan, Ph.D., Applied Anthropologist, Professor
Human Services Department at Cal State University Fullerton

High Plains Society for Applied Anthropology

2022 Fall Retreat

“(re)Placing Anthropology: Reflecting on the Anthropologist in the Professional Realm”

SATURDAY OCTOBER 8TH (MDT TIME ZONE)

2:00—2:45pm

“Mapping Wampum, an ethnography poetry collection”

Kenzie Allen

3:00—3:45pm

Group Poetry Workshop, Presentation, Discussion, and Retreat Processing

Howard F. Stein, Professor Emeritus, Department of Family and Preventive Medicine, University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center, Oklahoma City, OK; Poet Laureate, HPSfAA

4:00—5:00pm

Getting Anthropology Out of Crisis: A View from Anthropology’s Career Readiness Commission

Elizabeth K. Briody

5:15—7:00pm

Dinner and Virtual Happy Hour

